PRIVACY POLICY FOR CHARLES MARQUAND

Introduction

1. I, Charles Marquand, take your privacy very seriously and I am committed to protecting your personal data. I recognise the importance of being clear about how I intend to use your personal data. This Privacy Policy describes the information I collect about you, how it is used and shared, and your rights regarding it.

Data Controller

2. I am registered with the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) as a Data Controller for the personal data that I hold and process as a barrister, arbitrator and mediator. My registered address is 4 Stone Buildings, Lincoln's Inn, London WC2A 3XT and my registration number is Z4597479.

Data Collection

3. All personal data collected about you will be recorded, used and protected by me in accordance with applicable data protection legislation. The purpose of processing your personal data is:
  - a. to enable me to provide legal services, advice and representation;
  - b. to enable me to act as an arbitrator and mediator;
  - c. for conflict-checking;
  - d. for use in the defence of potential complaints, legal proceedings or fee disputes;
  - e. to comply with regulatory and legal obligations;
  - f. for keeping anti-money laundering records;
  - g. for exercising a right to a lien;
  - h. for record keeping and administrative purposes;
  - i. to assist in training pupils and mini-pupils; and
  - j. to investigate and address your concerns.
4. Where we have a contractual agreement that provides that personal data must be provided, you are obliged to provide the personal data and failure to do so will result in my being unable to provide legal services, advice or representation and/or act as an arbitrator or mediator.
5. I may receive personal data about you from third parties. Where I receive your personal data from third parties I shall process your personal data in accordance with this Privacy Policy. I may receive your personal data from a number of sources including from clients, solicitors, counsel, a court or tribunal, witnesses or from publicly available sources.

Lawful Basis for Processing

6. The Lawful Basis upon which your personal data will be processed will include one or more of the following bases:
  - a. your consent where freely given;
  - b. performance of a contract, including undertaking my instructions in a given matter or acting as an arbitrator or as a mediator;
  - c. to comply with a legal obligation;
  - d. to protect the vital interests of you or another person;
  - e. to perform a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of local authority vested in me; and
  - f. for the legitimate interests of you (as data subject), me (as data controller) or a third party, except where such interests are overridden by the interests, rights or freedoms of you as the data subject. The legitimate interests include:
    - i. to enable me to provide or enhance legal services, advice and representation;
    - ii. to enable me to act as an arbitrator and mediator;
    - iii. for conflict-checking;
    - iv. for use in the defence of potential complaints, legal proceedings or fee disputes;
    - v. to comply with regulatory and legal obligations;
    - vi. for keeping anti-money laundering records;
    - vii. to assist in training pupils and mini-pupils;
    - viii. for exercising a right to a lien;
    - ix. where the data subject is a client, in order to maintain that client relationship;
    - x. for direct marketing;
    - xi. for record keeping and administrative purposes;
    - xii. to investigate and address your concerns;
    - xiii. to ensure network and information security; and
    - xiv. to prevent fraud.
7. I do not use automated decision-making in the processing of your personal data.

Types of Personal Data

8. I collect and process both personal data and special categories of personal data as defined in the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), including, but not limited to, your name, job title, profession, email address, phone number, address, company or business details, financial details, bank details, date of birth, device IP address, criminal records, medical records. In each case this personal data is processed in accordance with this Privacy Policy.

Data Retention

12. Save in the case of business cards, my normal retention period is 15 years, after which I shall review the personal data I hold. My Retention and Disposal Policy (copy available on request) details in full how long I hold data for and how I dispose of it when it no longer needs to be held. I retain your personal data while you remain a client unless you ask me to delete it. I will delete or anonymise your information at your request unless:
  - a. there is an unresolved issue, such as a claim or disputes;
  - b. I am legally required to; or
  - c. there are overriding legitimate business interests, including but not limited to fraud prevention and protecting clients' safety and security.

I may retain business cards you have provided to me for longer than my normal retention period without review, unless otherwise requested by you.

Your Rights

13. The General Data Protection Regulation gives you specific rights around your personal data. For example, you have to be informed about the information I hold and what I use it for, you can ask for a copy of the personal information I hold about you, you can ask me to correct any inaccuracies with the personal data I hold, you can ask me to stop sending you direct mail, or emails, or in some circumstances ask us to stop processing your details. Finally, if I do something irregular or improper with your personal data you can seek compensation for any distress you are caused or loss you have incurred. You can find out more information from the ICO's website http://ico.org.uk/for\_the\_public/personal\_information and this is the organisation that you can complain to if you are unhappy with how I dealt with you.
14. In particular, you have the right to make a request, which must be in writing, to:
  - a. access to your personal data;
  - b. correct or update your personal data;
  - c. restrict the processing of your personal data; or
  - d. object to the processing of your personal data.
15. If you provide consent for me to process your personal data, you have the right to withdraw that consent at any time. This will not affect the lawfulness of processing based on consent before its withdrawal. This will also not affect the lawfulness of processing your personal data under another applicable Lawful Basis listed at clause 6 above.
